What Mama Said

We know what Forrest Gump's mother always said about that box of chocolates. Now Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce wants to know what your mother always said.

The Texas-based company, which emblazons jar lids on its sauce with quotes from famous mothers, is hosting a contest for the best "mom" quote. You can enter anything "funny, sassy, witty or wise," whether it came from your own mother, someone else's, or even a TV mom. The winning entry will appear on jar lids in the future. To enter, and see the list of quotes presently used, visit www.somebodysmothers.com and click on "Lidlit."
