

Houston March 2006 Lifestyles & Homes

CITY SCOPE

SHOPPING

Savory Homemade Chocolate Sauce

From the kitchen of Houston native Lynn Lasher comes the new dessert topping people have been buzzing about since its 2005 launch—Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce.

"There are no frills; it's just a really great, no-nonsense chocolate sauce," says Lasher about her product, which she makes using a family recipe. "People have pushed me for years to sell it, and now the response has been overwhelming."

Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce, which contains no additives or preservatives, has a flavor that is at once milk and dark chocolate. In keeping with the sauce's 'mom' branding theme, each jar features a lid sticker emblazoned with one of seven quotes from famous mothers or mothers of famous people ("George, get your feet off the coffee table!" – Barbara Bush).

Available at gourmet grocery stores and specialty boutiques;
www.somebodysmothers.com

