My Mama Always Said...

Moms are full of smart stuff and they love to tell it to you. Visit www.somebodysmothers.com to enter mom quotes be they from your own mum or "your hairdresser's cousin's dog-walker's mom."

Somebody's Mother's Chocolate Sauce, came with a Bushism: "George, get your feet off the coffee table!" – Barbara Bush. Your quote could go on a jar of this new topping. Winners will be selected a week before Mother's Day.

The $9 multi-sided jar reminds me of a vintage hat box, and it informs buyers that the sauce is good hot or cold and in the middle of the night. I had some hot over frozen whipped topping, but I enjoyed it more cold over ... well, just by the spoon, actually. I thought of it as milk chocolate and my daughter considered it dark, so how amusing to find the company refers to it as "a flavor that is at once milk and dark chocolate." Look for it at gourmet shops or visit [\[ers.com\]\(http://www.somebodysmothers.com\).](http://www.somebodysmoth-<div data-bbox=)
